

FISH CAMP WEEKEND 2015

April 24th - 26th

FISH CAMP is the first rite of Spring at San Jose Family Camp. Saturday morning starts the opening weekend of the stream-fishing season in California. Whether you are fishing or just relaxing, it is an opportunity for you, your family and friends to enjoy a weekend in the Sierras. With a stocked river running through camp, the fishing is right at your doorstep.

You can also drive a short distance to a number of great rivers and lakes in the vicinity. For those who do not want to fish, there is a beauty and grandeur of the Sierras in the spring to enjoy. During this weekend, food service is included. There are a total of 65 tent cabins, of which 24 have electricity. Each cabin sleeps up to six individuals. All bathrooms have hot showers and outlets for shavers and hair dryers.

THE COST? Includes the tent cabin and meal service. The meal service (which is required) included breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday and breakfast on Sunday. Please let us know of any dietary concerns at least two weeks prior to attending Fish Camp.

The Friends of San Jose Family Camp are pleased to announce their first fundraiser of 2015 with an "All-You-Can-Eat Dinner" on Friday, April 25th, 2015. For just $8.00 per adult and $5.00 per child (12 & under), dinner includes spaghetti with Sicilian style meat sauce, garlic bread and salad. Dinner service begins at 5:45pm and end around 930pm. Sign-ups for the Fish Derby will be taken by the Friends of Family Camp during the Friday night dinner. Cost for the Fish Derby is $5.00 per person.

Online Registration begins in February
